
Christine C. Muth

Counsel Naval Sea Systems Command

Ms. Muth graduated from Wellesley College in 1977 with a bachelor's of arts degree and received a juris doctorate. degree from Suffolk Law School in 1980. She has been associated with the Department of the Navy's Office of General Counsel (OGC) since 1979. She clerked for the Office of Counsel, Naval Air Systems Command in the summer of 1979 and returned there as an Assistant Counsel from 1980 to 1983. In 1983, Ms. Muth established the first Office of General Counsel office on the staff of the Naval Inspector General and served as Counsel to the Naval Inspector General until 1985.

In 1985, she joined the Space and Naval Warfare Systems Command Office of Counsel, becoming an Associate Counsel and Section Head in 1986 and Deputy Counsel in 1990. Ms. Muth received the Department of the Navy's Superior Civilian Service Award in 1993. She was selected as Counsel, Naval Facilities Engineering Command and appointed to the federal government's Senior Executive Service in 1994. She received the Presidential Rank Award of Meritorious Executive in 1999. Ms. Muth became Counsel, Military Sealift Command in January, 2000. In June 2008, Ms. Muth became Counsel, Naval Sea Systems Command.